

Faith Harris

December 10, 2008 - February 20, 2009

FAITH YOLANDA HARRIS, daughter of Tameka Rochelle Harris and Naim Rashed, was born on December 10, 2008 at University of Maryland Hospital, where she departed her short life on February 20, 2009. Little Faith was truly stronger than you could ever imagine. Her name represents her life. Glancing into her eyes and holding onto her tiny little fingers, I could feel all of her strength. Day by day, the bonding of her soul was special everyday. As I held her in the palm of my hands, I could feel the angels watching. Faith was definitely a fighter. As time will heal all hearts who loved Faith, we know she is in the arms of the Savior. She is survived by: her mother, Tameka; father, Naim, great-grandmother Lucille Byris; six sisters, Dejuane, Lyle, Samara, Kakiya, Naima and Nyla; four brothers, Delontae, Michael, Walter and Kavon; uncles and aunts; godparents, Alonzo Alston 3rd and Sophia Allen-Weaver (Starr); numerous other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Faith Harris

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Dear family, I am so very sorry that you lost your most precious little one. How heartbreaking that must surely be for you all. My prayers are with you in your sorrow. Turn to the God of all comfort; pour out your hearts to him, and he promises that he will give you the comfort that you need to endure in your sorrow. At Isaiah 66:13 he gives us this assurance when we experience such things. He promises: "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people. One day such tragedies will not be occurring on this earth, because Jehovah promises at Rev 21:4 that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Our loved ones who have died are asleep in Jehovah's memory, and one day he promises at John 5:28,29 that they will hear the voice of his son, Jesus, and they will come up out of the memorial tombs. What a wonderful time that will be when our loved ones come back to life without the pain or sickness they were going through, because God is going to make all things new. Rev 21:5 May these promises from God be an anchor for your souls to help you to go on, and always remember the good times you shared with your precious little one. Take care family, and hope in Jehovah.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM