“ I hope this scripture will give you comfort as it had for me for my loss. Revelation chapter 21:4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to know more about this hope found in God's Word, you can contact me via my email. Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Davis. At times, words of encouragement can help us during times of bereavement. At Acts 24:15 Almighty God promise a "resurrection" into a beautiful paradise (Luke 23:43). Yes, please be comforted by the fact that Almighty God knows our pains and sufferings and give us the hope of the resurrection. May this scripture give you all a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs Davis, I offer my heartfelt condolences. May you find comfort in God's promise of a resurrection. John 5:28,29 says that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Please think on these promises, and keep your cherished memories of your loved one close to your heart as we await his word to be fulfilled.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
