

Fannie M. Brandon

May 20, 1936 - February 25, 2018

FANNIE MAE BRANDON, daughter of the late Walter and Fannie Hill, was born on May 20, 1936 in Durham, N.C. She celebrated her homecoming on Sunday, February 25, 2018 after a lengthy illness,

Fannie Mae born in Durham, N.C. She and her family moved to Baltimore, MD during her early childhood years. Fannie Mae received her education in the Baltimore City public School System. She went on to work at saint Agnes Hospital for most her adult life until retiring to take care of her ill husband.

Fannie Mae married James Brandon, Sr., and of this union they had four children Clettes, James, Jr. (Butch), Charles, and David.

Fannie Mae loved to cook but even more so, she loved to dance and was the life of the party. Wherever she went. She a devoted wife and mother. She loved her kids tremendously but was not afraid to get them in check if they got out of line. Fannie Mae was a caring and giving soul. She was always willing to help someone in need and would give her last if she thought that it would help you. She will be sincerely missed by all who new and loved her.

Fannie Mae was preceded in death by her husband the James Brandon, Sr. and her two sons Clettes and Charles Brandon.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, James Brandon, Jr. and David Hills, three daughters-in-law, twelve grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives, friends, and longtime companions.
