

Fannie Gertrude Briggs

February 10, 1941 - June 17, 2025

Fannie was born to the late Ervin Agnes Briggs on February 10, 1941, and raised in Jarrett, Virginia among her seven siblings, Fannie parents instilled in her an unwavering faith in God. At an early age, she was baptized and became an active member of Jerusalem Baptist Church in Jarrett, Virginia. Fannie remained in Jarrett until she relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. Fannie had two sons, Derrick Jackson and Troy Jackson, who preceded her in death. Fannie joined Mount Pleasant Church and Ministries and was a faithful member for over 60 years until GOD called her to received her crown in glory.

Fannie graduated from Waverly High School in Waverly, Virginia. Fannie's first place of employment once relocating Baltimore was John Hopkins Hospital as a Surgical Sterilization Technician where she remained until retirement. After retirement, Fannie continued helping others and raising her grandchildren and great-children especially LaKeisha, Lamontae, and Kye-Rhen who resided with her. LaKeisha became her caregiver when her health declined but they enjoyed lots of fun family for many years.

Fannie had a real zest for life! Those who knew Fannie knew that her number one mission was nurturing her family,. Her other passions included cooking and being an inspiration for others with her big smile and jubilant “HELLO” when you called her. Fannie loved spending time with her family, and you could always count on her to bring a dish when hanging out them. Fannie also enjoyed life with her loving partner, affectionately called “Mr. Henry” until God called him home. You never Fannie unhappy or angry regardless of the situation. Fannie was always helpful and agreeable because she continually professed her love for everyone due to her faith in Jesus. Fannie never complained about anything and would always say “I'm okay with a smile even when you knew she shouldn't be!

Fannie leaves to cherish her memory her sister, Gloria Briggs; granddaughters, LaKeisha Jackson and Janae Jackson; one grandson, Tavon Jackson; two great grand grandsons, Lamonate Smith and Kye-Rhen Chapman; one great-granddaughter, Jalen Jackson; two loving and supportive nieces; Myra Andrews Carroll and Samantha Shands Hall (Malik); one great niece; Maliah Hall; one loving aunt, Reverend Dr. Ethel B. Poarch; one brother-in-law, Samuel Shands (Carolyn).

Four of Fannie' siblings preceded her in death, Adelle Briggs. Andrews (Algie). Alexander “Bennie” Briggs, Richard Briggs, and Carolyn Briggs Shands. One nephew preceded her in death, Aldwin Andrews. Fannie also leaves to cherish her memory a host of cousins, special daughters, and special friends, Ms. Janice Green, Mrs Pamela Walker, and Ms. Jacqueline Laws, and many other neighbors and friends.
