“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to you during your time of bereavement. 1 Corinthians 15:26 says- "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." What a wonderful prospect, no more death to take away our loved ones. Even more wonderful is the hope of seeing our loved ones in good health again, in a new body. Acts 21:15 says- "and I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection." May these divinely promises give you comfort and peace.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of your recent loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. I know that Ms. Fannie G. Butler will be missed by all who love her. You have many wonderful memories to cherish, hold on to them, for all has not been forgotten. At John 5: 28 & 29 Almighty God has promised a "resurrection" into a beautiful earthly "paradise". Yes, our dearly beloved ones will not be forgotten by us, or Almighty God. I pray that you rely on God's many promises recorded in the Bible for strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
