

Fannie Lee Kellam

October 12, 1915 - April 4, 2012

A Time to be born: Fannie Lee Kellam was born on October 12 1915, in Braxton County, Georgia to a loving father, Kings Jones.

A Time to Live: Fannie was the youngest of 9 children. Her mother sacrificed her life during the birth of Fannie , so her sisters and brothers assisted their father in raising her. Fannie remained in Braxton County, Georgia with her three children Murlene, Cora and Richard until 1943, when she relocated to Baltimore, MD. It was then that she began working for Goodwill Industries as a clerk. She met the final love of her life Leander Kellam and they were married in 1968. They later moved to New York where Fannie eventually retired from goodwill Industries. After some time she and Leander returned to Baltimore, MD . In retirement, Fannie enjoyed shopping for fashionable clothes, decorating her home and collecting memorabilia.

A Time to Die: Fannie passed quietly after a brief illness on Wednesday, April 4, 2012.

A Time To Mourn: Fannie leaves to celebrate her home going one daughter, Cora ; and one son, Richard (Mozelle);grandchildren; Fannie Mae, Lorenzo, Murlene, Roslyn, Patricia, Ededin, Landy Mark and Pamela; twenty-nine great grandchildren, fifty-eight great great grandchildren and one great great great grandchild. Husband, Leander daughter, Murlene; granddaughter, Linda grandson, Raymond; three brothers and 5 sisters preceded her in death.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
