“ I would like to convey my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) who cannot Lie (Titus1:2).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. Death is something that we will never get used to because God's Word tells us that it is our 'enemy'. (1Corinthians 15:26). What joy we will experience when that enemy is gone!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the scriptures at John 11:38-44. Here Jesus resurrected his friend Lazarus. May this strengthen you hope in the resurrection and encourage you during this time.###imported-begin##Mrs. Howard###imported-end##

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Fannie at this most difficult time. The time is coming when there will be no more sickness or death, because Jehovah has promised that he will swallow up death forever, and certinly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. One day our dead ones will come back to life. Isaiah 26:9 says, "Your dead ones will live. "A corpse of mine-they will rise up. "Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust." What joy we will have when our loved ones come back to life. May you be comforted and strengthened by this wonderful hope, and may your precious memories of Fannie be a comfort to you in the days ahead.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
