

Fannie Mae Mallory

January 1, 1929 - April 5, 2007

FANNIE MAY MALLORY, daughter of the late James and Mary Floyd, was born on January 1, 1929 in Gaston, North Carolina. On April 5, 2007, she left this earth to be with her Heavenly Father and those whom preceded her in death. Fannie received her education in North Hampton County public schools. She later met and married the late John Malary and they moved to Baltimore to start their family. They were blessed with nine children, the late John Malary, Dorothy May, Frantie Fay, Barbara Ann, Cathy Marie, Beverly Jean, Janet Lee, Michael and Patricia. Fannie's work is done here. She has gone home to watch over those loved ones whom God called home before her. First born John, your mother is back with you. Warren, Lawrence, Markieta, and baby Jamal. Your grandmother has come home to rest with you in our Lord's Arms. She also joins her younger brother John who she called Bra and her baby sister Theresa who she called Toots. She leaves behind to mourn: her eight special children whom she spent almost every weekend with, Dorothy, Faye, Barbara, Cathy, Beverly, Janet, Michael, and her precious Sweet Pea and one daughter-in-law, Deitre. Also a favorite aunt, Annie May; one sister, Beatrice; two brothers, Archie and Marvin Floyd; nine grandchildren, Antonio, Delanda, Kenneth, Cathy, Jermaine, Latonya, Serita, Marcus, and Jennine; twenty-nine great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. Those nieces, nephews and cousins who grew up with her children. Two granddaughters-in-law, Trecie and Sam; many extended family members and friends whom she accepted like her own.

Tribute Wall

“ Fannie Mae Mallory

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello! Mallory's ! May peace of mind be with you all since losing Ms.Fannie. I know the feeling of losing some one in death. So many unforeseen occurrences are happening today in these last day. The bible helps us to endure and keep our faith and love and hope needed today. The wonderful promises found in the bible will ease the lost feeling when someone dies. Our heavenly father intended for all of us to live forever, that time is fast coming as Rev.21:3-4 says. May the remembrance of Ms.Fannie stay close. I send my cindolences. L. Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian. c##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ You have my deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. Death touches us all in a most profound way. It's like a unreality knowing we can" see the dear faces of our loved ones anymore. God definitely didnt want this for his earthly children, and one day soon he promises to bring the dead back to life in a beautiful paradise. 2nd Peter 3:13, Psalm 37:10,11,29, and Rev.21:3-5. Then Isaiah 25:8 tells us that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. May it comfort you to know that one day you have the hope of seeing your loved one again. May that thought bring you comfort, as well as your cherished memories of your loved one, which death cannot erase.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26 tells us that our enemy death will one day be destroyed. The Bible also gives the hope of those in the memorial tombs coming back to life. (John 5:28,29) For many this will take place on a paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Psalm 37:29, Matthew 5:5 and Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM