

Fannie M. McNeil

April 28, 1926 - September 2, 2018

Fannie McNeil, daughter of George Lomax and Samantha Bailey, was born on April 28, 1926, in Abbeville County, South Carolina. Fannie was granted her angelic wings on Sunday, September 2, 2018.

Fannie received her education in the South Carolina School System. She later moved to Baltimore, MD where she met and fell in love with Eli McNeil. They were married on October 24, 1948. From their union, they had six children; John, Shirley, Leroy, Judy, George and Henry. Fannie was a faithful member of New Saint Mark Baptist for over 50 years where she joyfully sang on the church choir and added her expertise in the kitchen for many years.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Eli McNeil; brother, R.L. Lomax; sisters, Winifred Lomax Crane, Amanda Lomax Jones, Sally Lomax Johnson and son-in-law, Homer Allen.

Fannie leaves to cherish her precious memory; two sisters, Gertrude Lomax and Mary Lomax Johnson; four sons, John (Sharon), Leroy (Linda), George McNeil, Henry McNeil; two daughters, Shirley (Homer) Allen, Judy McNeil; two godchildren, Nikia Green, Wennell Butler; twelve grandchildren, Calvin McNeil, Tyrone Jefferson; fourteen great-grandchildren and host of other relatives and dear friends.
