“ I remember my Aunt always smiling and always having something to say that would make me laugh. She set the example of how to keep smiling no matter what comes our way!!! I am praying God's strength for all of our family members and her friends. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the end.

“ To the Spencer Family,
I was so sorry to read of the death of your loved one. Death is such a terrible thing. It hurts us so bad. But God is aware of this and He has given us comfort through his word the bible. It tells us at Revelation 21:4 that God will 'wipe out tears, death, pain and sorrow'. What a wonderful thought. Then it tells us at Isaiah 25:8 that God will 'swallow up death forever'. So we have such comforting information from the bible. We know that these things will happen too because the bible at Titus 1:2 says that God 'cannot lie'. So we have comforting and truthful information given to us. Well I hope that they words have brought comfort to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I wish to send my sincerest condolences to the family... I was so sorry to learn of this through the obituaries for March Funeral Home. The Bible tells us at Isaiah 51:12 "I-I myself am the One that is comforting you people." This is letting you know that God will always comfort you, especially in this, your time of need.
