

Fanny Bell Johnson

February 9, 1961 - August 10, 2024

Fanny Bell Johnson was born on February 9th, 1961, to Mary Anna Johnson and the late Robert Lee Johnson in Manning, South Carolina. Fanny received her education in the South Carolina school system until the family migrated to Maryland where she completed her academic studies in the Baltimore City Public Schools.

Fanny had a love and devotion for Family. Fanny has had many rewarding careers throughout her life. In her early teens, the family doctor noticed her amazing intellectual talent and she began to work for Dr. Vash. She even learned to take x rays and other minor procedures. She was a Cook, Medical assistant, Computer Technician and Special Education teacher.

Fanny was a devoted mother of five children. One preceded her in death (Jerrianna Martin). Fanny accepted God as her Lord and savior at an early age. After the family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, they joined Christ Temple Church. With God in her heart, with prayer and guidance she overcame many struggles in her life. After a few years she became a member of Simmons Memorial Baptist Church where she was baptized and gave her life to the Lord. She never missed a chance to praise and she worshiped God with her whole heart whether it was Sunday service or on her job she praised his hold name. She served in the kitchen for years with the ministry. She would stop and teach people about the goodness of God and invite them to worship with the Simmons Memorial Family throughout daily travels. Fanny even started a weekly bible study in the upper lunch area of the old Lexington Market. In west Baltimore she was known as “Aunt Fanny”.

Fanny leaves to cherish her memories and mourn her absence from this life; her mother Mary Johnson, One sibling Anna Johnson-Lampkin (John). Five children Sheavron Fortune (Keisha), Shentel Jackson (Telly), Ozella Elliott, Tony Martin Jr., Fifteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. One Aunt Lottie Eady, One uncle John Eady, One Godfather Jeri Chandelier who preceded in death and Significant other Jimmy (two nephews), a variety of cousins, relatives, close friends and our entire community.
