

Farley Alexander Wooldridge

July 14, 1954 - November 5, 2013

Farley Alexander Wooldridge “The Original Woo” left us peacefully November 5, 2013 at his home after a very short illness. Farley A. Wooldridge the first child of Herman A. and Elizabeth G. Wooldridge was born July 14, 1954. He joined Mt. Tabor Baptist Church at an early age. He was a graduate of John F. Kennedy High School class of 1972. Farley was employed at DuPont Fibers Spruance Plant for eighteen years.

Farley loved his family and friends. He was very compassionate to his neighbors, always ready to assist in any way he could. Farley excelled in the field of science while attending Virginia Commonwealth University. Farley had a flair for nostalgia and was always reminiscing with friends and family. While also a great listener, he was always ready to give advice, sometimes giving too much advice.

Farley was preceded in death by his father Herman A. Wooldridge; however he leaves to cherish his memories mother, Elizabeth G. Wooldridge; daughter, Ashley N. Wooldridge; sons, Farley A. Wooldridge II and Justin A. Wooldridge; two sisters, Kimberly W. Fenner(Gerald) and Fayth W. Bond(Denorris); one devoted niece, Pier C. Jeffries; three nephews, Sean Harper, Stephon S. Davis and Decarlos A. Bond; devoted friend, John P. Lacy and dear neighbors, Raerusselle Green and granddaughter Jeylan R. Moody and a host of other relatives and friends.

“God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
Courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference.”

“Thou will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee” Isaiah 26:3

“ I just learned of Farley's passing and my heart goes out to your entire family. We all grew up together. He will be missed but God loved him more. We lived just around the corner on 19th street.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. "Woo" and I had a very special friendship that I will always treasure. He was definitely a one of a kind person and he left an everlasting impression within my heart. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Rest in peace.

“ We will always remember that gravel voice of a chuckle and wide grin. When I was around my cuz, I always knew we were gonna have fun and that he had my back. Gonna miss him. There's no Butch without Sun Dance. Cousin Mike (Taylor)
