

Faye B. Smith

July 6, 1940 - December 30, 2001

FAYE BLANDINE SMITH, daughter of the late Nelson and Bernice Hynson, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 6, 1940. She quietly slipped away to be with the Lord on Sunday, December 30, 2001. She was educated in the Baltimore public schools. After high school, she was employed at Proctor Silex for several years. She was later employed at the St. Paul School for Boys, where she worked until she became ill. In her youth, she found Christ and attended Whatcoat Methodist Church. As an adult, she attended Arlington United Methodist Church. She enjoyed gospel music and would often be found attending gospel concerts. She enjoyed traveling and would not hesitate to go. Faye was quite and soft spoken. She enjoyed her family and was loved by all. In July 1964, she was united in Holy Matrimony to James E. Smith, Sr., from this union they were blessed with five children. She leaves to cherish pleasant memories; three sons, Clinton, James Jr. and Michael; two daughter, Kimberly and Crystal; nine grandchildren, one great-grandson, six sisters, one brother, one daughter-in-law; a devoted friend James Bryant; a special friend Walter Leigh; a host of other relatives and friends.
