

Faytre A. McGowan

June 24, 1945 - May 26, 2012

FAYTRE ADELL MCGOWAN, beloved daughter of the late Abell and Lula Bell Haley, was born on June 24, 1945 in Newport News, Virginia. She was called from labor to reward after a lengthy illness on Thursday, May 25, 2012.

She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she received her education through the Baltimore City Public School system.

In 1963 she married the love of her life, Haywood McGowan, they were married for forty-nine years.

She was known for her personality of speaking her mind and telling you how it was. She never had children, but was known as a second mother to her family. She has raised generations in her family and will always be remembered as a second mother.

She was a long time member of Winston Avenue Baptist Church under Pastor Westbrook. She later joined Victory Ministries under Pastor Tony Smith. She will be sorely missed by all who knew loved her.

Faytre leaves to cherish her loving memory: her husband, Haywood McGowan; three sisters, Lether Moore, Marva Sharp (Willie) and Thomasine Hayley; one brother, Jerry Haley; five sisters-in-law, Mattie, Catherine, Lillian, Maxine and Linda; one special friend, Joseph Johnson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
