“ I was looking up old friend over the internet and found out that Felicia had passed away many years ago. Felicia and I grew up together in Yonkers, and we were in Middle School together. We were best friend as kids. Felicia was such a great person, very funny, witty, caring and outspoken. I have a lot of childhood memories with her. God Bless You Felicia, my heart is still saddened that you left us so young. You lived a life of service because that's the type of person you were. Even though we grew up and took our respective places in life; I never forgot you or the great time we had at your grandmother's house and how we thought we were a singing group! Until I see you again~ Toni Vaughan-Moore
