

Felicia Williams

February 15, 1967 - May 29, 2016

Felicia Williams was born on February 15, 1967. She departed this life on May 29, after a lengthy illness.

Felicia received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools graduating from Southern High School in 1986.

She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior while attending Israel Baptist Church under the leadership of H. Walden Wilson II until her health began to fail.

Felicia was loved and loved all of her family and friends. She was a devoted sister, mother, friend, and wife - to -be.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father, Brenda Williams and James Carter, She had a lot of kindness and compassion. She loved to care for the sick and was a nursing assistant employed at St. Joseph Medical Center until her death.

Felicia Williams had many friends but there were four young ladies she called her sisters, Rhonda, Cheryl, Cyvette and Beverly. They all played a major part in her life Felicia had a special bond and close ship with her fiance Keith and his family; his mother and father, Dorothy and BoJack Martin and two sisters Tammy Pair and Sandra Bartee. They will miss her truly.

Felicia leaves to mourn: her only son, Dionte Reed who she cherished and loved:

her brother, Bishop Durrell Williams, and sister-in-law, Lady Katina Williams; most of all her beloved fiance, Keith Martin, who stood beside her until her, death. She also leaves to mourn four uncles, James Alton, Alvin and Orville Williams; uncle -in-law, Ralph Cooper and aunt-in-law Patricia Cooper; aunt Rozenna Williams; cousins, Brian, Troy, Alton Jr., Rodney Jr., Lisa Amanda, host of family and friends.

*From Pru & K: To a wonderful sister-in-law, Felicia, you were such a kind hearted, loving and caring person, your constant smiles could brighten anyone's day. My deepest sympathy goes to your family especially your son...remember, those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. I know it is not going to be easy for him but I pray that he'll carry your love in his heart every where he goes. No one ever really dies especially when they took the time to leave us with fond memories. We will miss you Felicia, remember God say your pain and took you home.
Please accept out most heartfelt condolences at this time of your loss.*
