

Ferdinand Walters

July 29, 1944 - October 14, 2015

Ferdinand Walters (Brother), son of the late Queen Powell was born on July 29, 1944 in Manning, South Carolina. Ferdinand entered eternal rest on October 14, 2015.

Ferdinand attended Baltimore City Public Schools. He enjoyed cutting hair and had a gift for drawing portraits. He lived his life on his own terms, good or bad, and faced many challenges in life. He loved his mother and daughter in his own special way. In the end, God saw the best in him and called him from labor to reward.

Ferdinand leaves to cherish his memories: one daughter, Lisa M. Williams, Claymont, Delaware; two sisters, Ethel Mae Dawson and Willie Mae McDuffie, Baltimore, Maryland; two aunts, Mazell Cain (Eddie), Davis Station, South Carolina, and Inez Lee, New York; a devoted cousin, Melvin Black; three devoted friends, Melvin Jones, Kenneth and Sandra Coles; and a host of cousins and friends.
