“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11) John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Renee there is no way we can truly understand your sorrow, unless we walked in your shoes. We know that Fernando was your soulmate, someone that you shared your life with unconditionally. We pray for your understanding of God's will, because you know God makes no mistakes. We are sure of one thing, that is he gone on to a higher calling. The unconditional love the two of you shared will indeed follow you through the rest of your life. Let this peace be still in your heart forever. You have all our love and blessings!###imported-begin##The Lamma Family###imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Fernando A. Tapp. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
