

Flemon R. Ward

January 30, 1946 - September 11, 2004

Flemon Roosevelt Ward, affectionately known as “Phil”/“Phil-Moore” was born to the late James Ward and Alberta Ward-Vinson on January 30, 1946 in Chester, South Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on Saturday, September 11, 2004. Phil moved to Baltimore as a nine year old boy. He graduated from the Paul Laurence Dunbar Senior High School. Phil worked hard, which included employment at the American Smelting Company and later, construction temp agencies. Phil discontinued working due to a disability in 1999. Phil lived on Valley Street in East Baltimore for over forty years. Phil’s favorite pastime was standing on the corner for hours at a time. Phil met a lot of friends who crossed his path. In 2000, Phil moved to the Monument East Apartments, where he enjoyed watching music videos, conversating with neighbors and watching wrestling. He enjoyed monthly outings to New Jersey, Delaware, and West Virginia. Phil was a quiet private person. However, he would give of himself by running errands for his senior neighbors, and being there for his family. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him. Phil leaves to mourn: one daughter, Mildred McCray; son-in-law, Anthony McCray; granddaughter, Tiffany Quarles; grandson, Anthony J. McCray; two nieces, Sherwanda Brooks and La Tonya Brooks; nephew, George L. Brooks; two great-nieces, Alexis Brooks and Destiny Brooks; two great-nephews, Robert Silver, Jr. and Wesley Brooks; and a host of relatives, friends, and very dear friend, Karen R. Smith.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures as I have been##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
