“ Rest in Peace to my Ol Army Buddy Fletcher. We were stationed together at Ft. Detrick MD. He was my barracks room mate. On more than one occasion he took me home with him to show me how they cook out in Baltimore. How they cook sea food specifically.

Penn was a great guy, my condolences to the family.

“ *I remember Mr Fletcher talking to me as if I was one of his own children .
Encouraging me to not mess my life up when I was 14 years old .
I still appreciate that talk and never forgotten those words said to me .
I loss my dad when I was 11 years old , he was dear to me and the glue in my family .
Your very blessed to have had the time to did with him Sonia .
My deepest condolences to you and you're family .
May peace comfort you all !
(Love you my sister)

“ Fletcher will be surely missed. He was an exceptional Father, Brother, Friend and Spouse. He could be counted on to always deliver on a promise, making his time and expertise available to anyone in need. He was no novice in the kitchen either, I've enjoyed many delicious meals prepared by "Chef Penn". A fun loving soul with a heart as big as Texas. Rest in Peace Ole Boy until we meet again.

May God's Love, Mercy and Blessings be upon The Penn Family in their time of bereavement. May your loved one's love light your path and bring sunshine to your life

*Respectfully,
Melvina D Moore*
