

Flonie T. Bryan

February 15, 1942 - July 13, 2020

FLONIE BRYAN was the loving daughter of the late Johnny M. Thorpe and Addie B. Thorpe born February 15, 1942. She was the devoted wife of Joseph Bryan Jr. whom she married in 1967. Flonie, affectionately known as Flo, professed faith in Christ at an early age and became a member of White Rock Baptist Church of Oxford, North Carolina. Flo loved the Lord and later became a member of Colonial Baptist Church of Randallstown, Maryland where she remained active until she became ill and could no longer attend regularly.

Flo received her primary and secondary education in the Granville Public School System and graduated Hawley High School of Creedmor, North Carolina. Flo became a Licensed Practical Nurse and loved working and helping her patients.

She received many awards for her good work ethics. Flo loved fast cars, fishing, skiing, and cooking. She was an expert judge in the matter of clothing and wore her clothes to perfection.

On Monday, July 13, 2020 Flonie passed at her home in Randallstown, Maryland. She was preceded in death by her siblings, Estelle Chavis, Thelma Mitchell, Goldie Wilson, Orbie Thorpe, Jimmy Thorpe, Aletha Satterfield, Allie, and Gene Sidney Jr.

Flonie leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Joseph Bryan Jr.; two sisters, Lenola Webb (Sam), Alean T. Hawley both of Oxford, North Carolina; brother-in-law, George Bryan of Baltimore, Maryland; a special nephew, Otis

Thorpe of Oxford, North Carolina; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
