

Flora Jeane Rice

June 23, 1959 - January 9, 2010

FLORENCE JEAN RICE, beloved daughter of the late Iris Peace and David Rice, began her whirlwind life on January 09, 2010, God in His infinite wisdom sent His heavenly angels to take her home. Affectionately called "FLO" by her family and close friends, she grew up as a typical young woman always full of mischief and jokes. Flo was employed all her life in Baltimore, Maryland until she became ill. She received her education at Southwestern Senior High School. Flo loved life and lived it each day to the fullest. Though quite charming and very generous, she was a woman with the gift of gab. Good or bad, Flo would say what needed to be said. She enjoyed spending quality time with her family and close friends. Always the life of the party, "Flo" also enjoyed going out and having a good time. Flora leaves to cherish fond and lasting memories: her four children, Marvin (Pooh) who preceded her in death, Issac, Sharon and Sherron; two sisters, Yvonne and Wanda; two brothers, Melvin and Marvin; four grandchildren, Daquan, Inasia, Issac Jr. and Logan; seven nieces, seven nephews, fourteen great-nieces and -nephews; two sisters-in-law, two godchildren; and a very devoted friend "Peggy" along with a host of other relatives and dear devoted friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Flora Jeane Rice

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I would like to extend my condolences to you all in your recent circle of life being broken. Death hurt the heart and your heavenly knows how you are feeling and cares for you all, 1 Peter 5:7. In the near future there will be no more dying and pain and sorrow tears of saddeness as the bible say at Rev.21:3-5, WHY? because our heavenly father say he is making all things NEW, and the resurrection is coming to something to see. I am so looking forward to that happening because I too recently loss my mother in December 09. May the gift of memories from our creator help on the journey of life.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sharon and Sherron, your mother has finished her life on earth, life for her has just began. She is still with us in spirit. That you must believe. May your memories give you strength. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May God Bless you.##imported-begin##Cousin Quincy Rice and Velma Mingleton##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sharon and Sherron, I pray that you will focus on the precious memories you have of your mother, that's what made you young ladies who you are. God is close to the brokenhearted and earth has no sorrows that Heaven can not heal. Let not your heart be troubled, Jesus is the Way, Truth and the Light. Cast your cares and worries on Him who is able to carry your burdens. We love you. Aunt Cheryl, Brandy & kids##imported-begin##Cheryl Murphy & Brandy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM