

Floree B. Melvin

February 11, 1937 - March 5, 2017

FLOREE BERNICE MELVIN, beloved daughter, of the late Nathaniel and Lessie Melvin was born on February 11, 1937 in Baltimore Maryland. God called her His daughter home on March 5, 2017.

Floree received her education at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. After graduating, she pursued a career at Johns Hopkins Hospital as a surgical technician in the general operating room until she retired in 1999. Floree later worked during her retirement at BWI Airport as well as CVS Store.

Floree was loved by all, to know her was to love her. She lived life to the fullest with her children, nieces and nephews placing them before herself. She had a special love for cooking. Flo was especially known for her famous potato salad, carrot and 7up cakes. Because of her love, all were welcome to a good hot meal. Flo's home was always full of family, neighborhood children and friends. She was very well known and would often be seen taking long walks through the Cherry Hill community. Grandma loved to have her morning coffee and most of her grandchildren drank it along with her.

Floree had a special bond with God. She loved music, dancing, singing, shopping and traveling. When she was able, Floree would visit various churches in the Cherry Hill Community. She loved to worship at South Church where she was known by the Pastor, Aaron Wendell Hanna as "MAMA"!

Floree was preceded in death by: her oldest daughter, Tanion E. Pettigen and son, Twuan D. Melvin; three siblings, Evelyn Williams, Josephine Overton and Nathaniel Melvin Jr.
