

Florence Ethel Jackson

July 26, 1918 - October 11, 2004

Florence E. Jackson, daughter of the late Herman J. and Lena Harris, was born July 26, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland. She entered into eternal life on Monday, October 11, 2004. She was educated in the Baltimore in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of fifteen Florence accepted Christ as her personal Savior and joined the Mount Sinai Baptist Church where Rev. Taylor was pastor. During World War II, Florence was employed at Glen L. Martin Defense Plant. In 1949 she met and married the late George Jackson. During this marriage she and her husband were the owners and managers of three variety stores. The last store known as Jackson's Variety, upon the sale of both business and home, Florence retired, moving her residency to the newly built Belvedere Greens Senior Citizen Complex. Florence was very active throughout her stay in her building. She loved working in the Dining Hall and Thrift Center Shop. She found a great deal of joy in fellowshiping with the other residents and helping out in any capacity she was needed. In January of 1969 Florence became a member of the little Ark Missionary Baptist Church under the pastoral leadership of the late Rev. Matthews Marcus Sr. She was a faithful member of the Pastor's Aide and Senior Usher Ministry often known by her trademark starched white uniform. Florence loved her pastor Rev. J.L. Carter, and her church family. She served the Ark Church faithfully until her health failed. Florence was blessed with a warm, friendly spirit. She was able to make friends wherever she went and will truly be missed by all who knew her. Her memory will be cherished by: her stepdaughter, Lucretia Johnson; granddaughter, Ashley Johnson; three sisters, Edith Walker, Lucille Walker and Helen Watkins of Baltimore, Maryland; three brothers-in-law, Thomas Walker and Edward Jackson of Baltimore, Md., and George Trippley of Brooklyn, N.Y.; a special, devoted niece, Gertrude E. Thomas; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Preceding her in death are three brothers and one sister, Charles, Walter, Herman Harris and Lena Trippley.

“ God is good, and he grants us riches untold, and that is how I'll remember Aunt Florence. I'll remember the family time when Aunt Florence, Aunt Lucille, Aunt Helen, grandma Walker and of course Uncle Robbie. Those memories are lessons learned about family and family values. I will remember the store and the apartment upstairs. I thank God for his grace and mercy for the memories and lessons learned. Even in Aunt Florence's failing health, God was so good to provide me the opportunity to learn and understand how a person moves from this life to eternal life with dignity and respect. God bless you mommy for that kind of loving lesson. Thank God for yo mom for being right in preparing me in my last visit with Aunt Florence that she would call me fat.(smile) A special prayer for my sister Penny who loved Aunt Florence quietly and consistantly. Trish, with Uncle George going home, and now Florence. Mommy shared with me your pain, your struggle, and may God keep you and give you peace. May time heal the wound of today and may the nights be peaceful. It has been years since I've seen you, and time has been very kind, your smile is as I remember it. To all the other family and friends, hold on to the memories as I will cherish with you. May God keep you. Amen###imported-begin###Carroll H. Thomas###imported-end###

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.###imported-begin###Sophia Briscoe###imported-end###

“ Although no words of sympathy can ease the loss you bear, may you find comfort in whats stated at Isaiah 25:8. May you also find much comfort in the loving memories of the one you lossed and strength in the caring thoughts of others. My sincere condolences are with your family and friends.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
