

Florence Gee

November 25, 1938 - March 9, 2007

On March 9, 2007 our Lord and Savior called on His child, Florence Gee to come home, after a lengthy illness. Florence was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 25, 1938, from the union of Robert (deceased) and Equileas (deceased) Ervin. Florence was educated in the Baltimore City public schools. Florence was united in marriage to Roosevelt Gee. From this union six children, Veronica, Raymond, Emmanuel, Natalie, Gerald and Alfred (deceased), were born. Florence started working at an early age and continued to do so at Spring Grove State Hospital until her retirement. She began her own business venture in the clothing industry, which was her true passion. Florence a.k.a. "Flo," to those closest to her opened a fashion gala which she proudly and affectionately loved "Gee's Fashion Boutique." Florence was a connoisseur of fabric and fashion, everything she touched, eloquently flourished with her love. Florence enjoyed life to the fullest, but her favorite attribute was being "Momma" to her children, grandchildren and even friends. Her marriage to Roosevelt (whom she called "McKinley") was a loving marriage which lasted fifty-two years. In Florence's willingness to make others happy she will forever be remembered for her unselfish contributions, her loving and caring ways, but most of all for her sweet and motherly demeanor. Mamma leaves to celebrate her life: her husband, "McKinley"; two daughters, Veronica (also known as "Tootsie") and Natalie; three sons, Raymond, Emmanuel and Gerard; eight granddaughters, Lakiya, Latyrisha, Danyelle, Shakena, Lakeisha, LaChanda, Stephon and Hailé; two grandsons,

Emmanuel Jr. and Quinton Smith (whom she raised from a child). Florence is also survived by a host of great

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives the loving promise of our loved ones returning to us on a trouble-free paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5; John 5:21,28,29, Matthew 5:5; Luke 23:43) It is our hope that you will receive much comfort and strength as you think on these loving promises from its author Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon & Joe Hill##imported-end##

“ Florence was my aunt and friend. She was a positive influence in my life. When I needed someone for support, she was always there. I will miss her but she will always be in my heart. Florence loved us all and she showed how much she loved each of us every day she lived. She always wanted the best for her family and friends. I am sure she knew I loved her dearly. She will be missed. God didn't want Florence to suffer any longer. Now, she is in a better place. However, she is still with us in our hearts.##imported-begin##Ernestine J. Wells##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
