

Florence L. Cromartie

August 21, 1919 - December 18, 2005

FLORENCE LOUISE CROMARTIE, daughter of the late Willie and Julia Walker, was born August 21, 1919 in Ebony, Virginia. After a lengthy illness and fiercely fought battle, she departed this life on Sunday, December 18, 2005. She received her formal education in Virginia. There she was raised along with nine brothers and sisters, all of whom preceded her in death. At an early age, Florence accepted Christ and became a member of the Good Hope Baptist Church. After growing up, she taught school in Virginia then moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Florence dutifully went back to Virginia in order to care for her mother and remained with her until she passed. When she journeyed back to Baltimore, Florence gained employment at Western Electric Company. She thoroughly enjoyed working there and retired with many years of dedicated service. Also during this time, she married Willie Cromartie and enjoyed many years of happiness until his passing. Florence was a long time member of the First Baptist Church and remained active while in good health. Florence lived a quiet life, yet she was known and will be remembered for her great wisdom and strength. The family knew that you could always count on "Aunt Lou" and she was always there when you needed her. Through each passing of her sisters and brothers, Aunt Lou, in her commitment to our family became the matriarch. It is good to know that in turn, when Aunt Lou's health began to fail, loving neighbors John and Alice Crowell heeded God's word to "Love thy neighbor as thyself." The family is ever grateful for their kindness. She leaves to cherish her memory: nephews, Theodore Wilkins, Oscar A.

Smith Jr., Steve O. Smith, Jr. and Thomas L. Walker, Jr.; nieces, Julia Barbour, Shirley Way, Ruby Thompson, Margaret Pompey, Pamela Miles, and Renee L. Walker; two brothers-in-law, Mack Cromartie and Oscar Smith, Sr.; two sisters-in-law, Ruby Cromartie and Laura Johnson; great-nephews and great-nieces, along with other family members and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to you. Daniel 12:2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." So, the Bible is holding out the hope of a resurrection to life with no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 33:24 and Psalms 37:29) May you receive much solace and strength from these loving promises of The Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Cromartie. Even though your loss leaves you in pain and empty, it is only temporary. God's inspired word the bible promises us that death will be no more. One such comforting scripture is Isaiah 25:8,9. Here it makes the promise that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever.##imported-begin##K. D. Smith##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To The family of Florence L. Cromartie I would like to express my condolences to you at this time for your loss. Death is not a natural thing for us to except but it is a part of our lives now. At John 5:28,29 Jesus speaks of a time when we will see our love one again all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life that is a promise we can be sure of. Jesus also speaks of a time when the earth will be a paradise as brought out in Luke 23:42,43 isn't that a lovely promise. At this time you can look to Jehovah God for comfort as 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 brings out for your family in your tribulation. Trust in Jehovah as Proverbs 3:5,6 express while your going thought the loss of your love one. Please enjoy your memories of your Mother as they will bring you comfort as I hope this letter will bring a small measure of comfort to your family. My Deepest sorrow Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##
