

Florence Moore

December 18, 1937 - July 30, 2023

FLORENCE VIRGINIA MOORE, daughter of the late Bennie and Pearl Lambert was born on December 18, 1937 in Kenbridge, Virginia. She departed this life on July 30, 2023 after a lengthy illness. Now her new address is in Heaven with her Heavenly Father, and all those born again Christians who have gone home before her.

Florence moved to Blackstone, Virginia at an early age and attended A.G. Richardson Public School. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland at the age of 14 where she attended and graduated from Frederick Douglass School. She did housework before beginning her lengthy career as an Administrative Clerk at C&P Telephone Company, now Verizon, until her early retirement in 1996.

In her pastime, Florence enjoyed singing on the church choir at Friendship Baptist Church, bowling with her league buddies and baseball. She was a loving and dedicated wife and nurturing mother and grandmother who was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Preceding her in death were her siblings, her sons, Samuel & Michael Lambert and grandson, Aaron Moore.

Florence leaves to cherish her memory: her dedicated and loving husband,

Willie Moore: one son, Antonio Lambert Sr.; two daughters, Donna Lambert and Veronica Moore; eleven grandchildren, Antonio Jr. (Tone-Tone), Marcus, Michael Jr. (Mike), Floyd, Tayvonne, Stacey, Maurtese, Kelton, Danielle, Shawn and Deion; thirteen great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
