

Florence S. Sherman

November 20, 1936 - March 15, 2011

FLORENCE SHERMAN, daughter of the Linwood and Irene Lawson, was born on November 20, 1936 in Lunenburg County, Virginia. She slipped quietly away on March 15, 2011 to be with the Lord.

She was baptized and made her peace with God at an early age, joined the Friendship Baptist Church in Kenbridge, Virginia.

Florence received her education in the Virginia Public School System. She moved to Washington, D.C. in 1956 where her first child, Marcella, was born. In 1957, Florence relocated to Baltimore, Maryland and for a length of time she was a waitress. In 1967, she began to work at Misty Harbor Manufacturing Company as a presser. In 1969, her second daughter, Veronica, was born. After an accident, she retired on disability. She spent her later years raising her grandson, Davonte.

We will miss her cakes and pies, words of wisdom, and kind heart. Florence loved to sew and shop. She had a wonderful smile that would light up a room.

She was preceded in death by brother, Howard Lawson; and two sisters, Keziah Lawson and Ida West.

Florence pride were her daughter, Marcella Shell and Veronica Craig; grandchildren, Davonte' McBride, Shavonne George and Vivianna Craig who she leaves to mourn; along with her three sisters, Patty Lawson of Baltimore, Maryland, Vernell Lawson of Upper Marlboro, Maryland and Louise Lawson of Alexandria, Virginia. She is also survived by brother-in-law, Aaron Lawson; son-in-law, Cermontia Craig; two stepsisters, Margaret Harper and Christine Pittman; nieces, nephews and countless other dear relatives and close friends.

CS

Our prayers, support and condolences go out to Marcella Shell, Veronica Craig, their children and the entire family of Florence Lawson-Sherman. I am Marcella's aunt and was close to Florence. I have fond memories of Florence, especially her wonderful smile. The Lord will lead, guide and comfort you. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."-Psalm 30:5
