

Floria J. Zobear

January 19, 1956 - November 26, 2022

Floria Jean Zobear, daughter of the late Alvin and Elouise Storey, was born on January 19, 1956 in Creswell, North Carolina. She departed her earthly life on November 26, 2022 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mbali, as she was affectionately known, received her education within the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended Baltimore City Community College to study business. Mbali enlisted in the United States Naval Academy in 1986 completing an honorable discharge. Mbali was a correctional officer in Philadelphia Correctional Facility where she worked until taking on entrepreneurship. She owned and operated Tehuti's clothing and accessories on Harford Road in Baltimore. Mbali extended Tehuti's to the Eastern Avenue Flea market and worked there until her ascent to heaven.

Mabali was an entrepreneur and a go getter. She enjoyed nature and enjoyed feeding birds, fishing, traveling and taking of Ziza and Bay Dog her Pitt Bulls. She also loved to have fun at the casino and at the card table. Mbali took special interest in providing fun for the children in the family and around her neighborhood.

Mabli will be missed dearly. The impact she left behind will never be forgotten in the Storey family legacy. Mabli introduced the family to African culture and taught us the meaning of Kwanzaa. She gave all the kids Swahili names that were reflections of strength, purpose, beauty. Mbali loved to be with her family.

Preceding Mablii death, her parents Alvin and Elouise Storey, bothers, Alvin Storey, Clifford Storey and Walter Johnson, sisters, Elizaberh Wilmer and Constance Storey.

Mabli leaves to cherish her memory: her brothers, Wiley Storey, Ted Storey and Willie Storey, Sisters- in -law Darlene Storey, Frances Storey and Janice Storey,

Brother- in -law, William Wilmer, favorite niece, Frances Myers and a host of aunts, nieces and nephews, She also leaves to cherish her memory her best friend and sister, Joy Turner
