

Florine Talbert

March 22, 1928 - September 3, 2002

Florine A. Talbert, daughter of the late Lottie and George Veney, was born on March 22, 1928 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 3, 2002. She received her education at Douglass High School in Baltimore. "Flo," as she was lovingly known to everyone, was employed by Kirsch Cleaners for twenty-five years. But her special job was being a surrogate mother to so many young children that she loved and cared for as if they were her very own. She was also a member of Gillis Memorial Church for fifty-two years. Flo married Grady Young and the two remained married until his untimely death. Flo leaves to mourn: three nieces (daughters), Yvonne Butler, Dianetta Fowlkes and Joyce Cypress; three nephews (sons), James Robinson, Alvin Thomas Jr. and Roderick Jordan; one special grandson, Kristopher Wells; great nieces, Chanel, Rikki, Le'Kese, Shineka and Shante; great nephews, Kenneth Jr., Andre, Marcus, Brian, Tavon, and Alvin III; three special friends, Valarie Epperson, Deborah Faulk and Christine Smith; and a host of other relatives and friends.
