“ I send my condolences to those mourning the passing of Mrs. Florrie. Please remember that God does feel your pain. He also comforts those who are in pain (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Also remember that there will be a time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrection". Thus, our loved ones will be resurrected back to life. May you be comforted.###imported-begin###Kendra A###imported-end##

“ My condolences to all family, friends & colleagues. Jesus likened death to sleep, as stated in John 5:28,29, "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Please take comfort in knowing that your loved one's sleep is temporary.##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the death of your loved one. Acts 24:15 says -"There is going to be a resurrection." Before that time comes God will make this earth a trouble-free paradise with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Matthew 5:5, Luke 23:43 & Isaiah 33:24) May you receive much comfort and strength from reading these scriptures in your Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
