

Flossie Lightner

July 27, 1922 - September 28, 2014

FLOSSIE MCCORMICK LIGHTNER was born July 27, 1922 to the late Nelson and Nancy McCormick in Chester, South Carolina. On September 28, 2014 Flossie departed this life. God saw her getting tired and He did what He thought was best. He put His arms around her and whispered, Come Unto Me and Rest. Flossie joined Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Fairfield County, South Carolina at an early age. She later moved to Concord, North Carolina then to Baltimore, Maryland. She worked at Suburban Country Club for over 35 years. She loved the Lord, family and friends. Flossie always had smiles and loved talking about the Lord. Siblings who preceded her in death: brothers, Nelson, Raymond, Leslie, Ezell, Ed, J.c., Sam, W.F.; sisters, Hattie Mae Stradford, and Nancy McCormick; daughter, Teresa McCormick; husband, Larry Lightner. Flossie was an Orioles and Ravens fan. She loved family gatherings and steamed crabs. Flossie joined First New Life Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Washington Flowers. She also loved her vegetable and flower garden. Flossie leaves to mourn: her brother, Johnny McCormick; sister, Elouise Springs; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
