

Floyd C. Adams

June 16, 1938 - May 31, 2007

On May 31, 2007, the death angel came and bore the bright spirit of our beloved Floyd to a land that is free from sickness, sorrow and pain. He suffered extremely in the last few months but bore it patiently. Even though his loving wife did everything she could to relieve his pain and prolong his life, it was God's will that he should go home. Floyd realized that and was not alarmed by the thought of death. He felt his time had come and he had assurance of the words of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., "Free at last, free at last, thank God Almighty, I'm free at last." Floyd loved life. He loved his cars and bowling. He loved his hoe and gardening. He worked hard and was a good provider for his family. He was a strong meticulous man. He had a contagious laugh. He always had a joke or a word of advice. He was steadfast and never deviated from the course. However, regardless of our worth or vocation in life when our appointed time comes we must go, Floyd entered this worldly life on June 16, 1938, in Waltersboro, South Carolina, the son of the late Floyd Cummings and Lula Funches Adams. Floyd loved the Lord and served his faithfully throughout his life. Floyd graduated from Ruffin High School in 1957, Ruffin, South Carolina. He relocated to New York City, shortly afterward. He was employed by Tower East Garage until his retirement. He then relocated to Baltimore, MD. He was united in Holy Matrimony to the former Pauline Moore, and to this union six children were born. His son, Darryle and sister, Jean Anderson, preceded him in death. He leaves to bear his legacy: a loving and devoted wife, Pauline; his children, Debra Ann, Roger,

Dwain, Gerald and Gerard; his grandchildren, Nastasia, Nevele, Tamile, LaStaci, Jasmine, Megan, Roger Jr. and Tianna; great-grandson, Talique; three daughters-in-law, Tisha, Myrna and Angie; brother, George; sister, Evelyn; five sisters-in-law, Minnie Margaret, Mary Ella and Caffie; four brothers-in-law, Fred, Willie, Joe and Wilford; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Adams, please accept my sincere condolences. May the God of all comfort strengthen you, and help you to cope in the days ahead. This painful enemy death was not the purpose of Jehovah God, and one day soon he promises to rid the world of all pain and sorrow. Rev 21,4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. "The former things have passed away. I hope this wonderful promise gives your family hope, and comforts you in your grief.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
