

Floyd Ragsdale Patterson

November 30, 1935 - October 2, 2015

Our beloved Floyd Ragsdale Patterson, 79, was called home to be with his heavenly Father, October 2, 2015. He was born November 30, 1935 to the late Floyd and Minerva Patterson in Richmond, Virginia.

Floyd was educated in the Richmond Public Schools system and attended Maggie Walker High School. At an early age, Floyd accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and joined Goodwill Baptist Church where he was baptized. He later joined First Union Baptist Church and continued his spiritual journey.

He met Mary Francis Bacote, the love of his life and on June 30, 1967, they married. Together, they reared two children, Carolyn and Carl. Floyd, a loving husband, father, grandfather, was dearly loved by his family. Floyd cherished spending time with his family. He was a man of strength and character whose love of the Lord was demonstrated in through a generous giving nature. Floyd took pride in providing for his family.

A dedicated maintenance engineer for the City of Richmond, Floyd retired at the young age of 62. Retirement gave him plenty of time to have lengthy conversations with his caring neighbors, especially Micki Alexander as they sat on his front porch. His football team was the Dallas Cowboys and he made sure he watched every game they played on TV. Floyd was also an avid Nascar fan and a huge collector of all types of model cars, buses and trucks.

He was preceded in death by his daughter Cynthia Denise Patterson; son, Arthur Lee Patterson and step-son, Carl A. Faulk. Floyd will be greatly missed and leaves to cherish his life filled with memories his precious wife of 48 years, Mary Francis Patterson; son, Maurice Floyd Patterson; step-daughter, Carolyn Faulk; brother, Mack H. McCray; three sisters-in-law, Rosa Tillar (Thelmo), Alice Thomas, and Betty Bacote; brother-in-law, Calmo Bennett; a host of grandchildren, one devoted granddaughter, Shaundrae Faulk Richardson (Brian), nieces, nephews, other relatives, caring neighbors and friends.
