

Floyd Thomas Weaver

November 19, 1924 - July 8, 2009

Mr. Floyd Thomas Weaver was born on November 19, 1924 in Greensboro, North Carolina. He was the son of Henry and Viola Weaver. He was a World War II veteran who received the Bronze Star for Heroism and a retiree of the Baltimore City Water Department, where he worked as a pump operator. He was also a member of the American Legion Post #285, located in East Baltimore. He will be most remembered for being a no-nonsense type of man. He was a man who spoke what was on his mind; a man who had much wisdom of the world he traveled and endured. A strict father and a lonesome husband, Floyd T. Weaver loved the best way he knew how, and gave 100% everyday in whatever he pursued. He was a civil rights activist and a strong believer in black people. He leaves behind three children, five stepchildren and nine grandchildren. He will always be remembered.

Tribute Wall

“ Floyd Thomas Weaver

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I send my deep condolences at this time. May God surround you with his love, and help you to cope with the loss of your loved one. The dead are never forgotten by Jehovah, and one day he will bring them back to life. The Apostle Paul believed in this hope, and he said these words at Acts 24:15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May your hearts be comforted by this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort from your precious memories and the hope of a resurrection expressed at Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM