

Frances Allen Carey

August 16, 1924 - June 25, 2007

FRANCES ALLEN CAREY was born on August 16, 1924 in Lynchburg, Virginia. Her sunset was June 25, 2007. Frances received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Her first job was at the Cat-Paws Shoe Factory in South Baltimore. She also held various positions that included Nurses' Aid, Office Clerk and Housekeeping. Frances married the late Russell Critterton, Sr. and out of that union one child was born, Russell Critterton, Jr. She later married the late James Carey, Sr. and was overjoyed to become a mother to James Carey, Jr. and Adria Carey. Frances was unique. She was not just the life of the party, she was the party. You did not have to see Frances to know she was in the room. Frances had many passions in life. The ones most dear to her heart were her grand- and great-grandchildren and the slots. Frances loved busing up Midway, Delaware with her friends and having a good time. Frances was a devoted friend and will be missed by many. She leaves to mourn: her sons, Russell and James; and daughter, Adria; two daughters-in-law, Yuna and Citaa; nine grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Death is truly a heartbreaking experience for any family to have to endure. One day soon God promises a complete end to sickness and death. All sorrow will soon be past, because God promises at Rev 21:4 that he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Please find comfort in his word, the bible, which can be a great source of comfort at such times.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello 1 Carey's ! May I take this opportunity to send my condolences to u all. When we lose a loved one the family circle is broken. Our heavenly father knows how you all are feeling right now and cares and is the God of all comfort as 2 Cro. 1:3 say. I have lost loved one in death too.Ms. Frances would have been 83 this past June 25,07. The bible say at Ps.90:10 that some would lived to be 70, and other to 80 because of special mighttness, Ms.Frances did just that. May all the happy times spent with Ms. Frances stay close to you hearts. Sincerely, Crosby.###imported-begin##Lillian Crosby###imported-end##

“ We would like to express our sympathy to Frances' family and friends. The loss of a loved one is very painful that's why the Bible calls death our enemy. Please be encouraged by God's promise to do away with that enemy, death and all the pain it causes (1 Corinthians 15:26). We sincerely hope this comforts your heart.###imported-begin##Valerie Johnson###imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
