

Frances Ann Costley

July 11, 1926 - February 12, 2002

Frances Ann Costley, one of God's flowers, bloomed on July 11, 1926, in Mt. Washington, Maryland. She was the daughter of the late John and Catherine Gibson. God picked her for His eternal garden early in the morning on February 12, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the public schools of Baltimore, Maryland. Later she met the late Oneil L. Costley; Sr. and they were joined in marriage. From this union four children were born Sheila, Oneil Jr., Mary and Clarissa. Frances retired from the Baltimore School System, after receiving numerous awards for outstanding achievements. Those who knew and loved Frances recognized her for her hard work and respected her ability to love unconditionally. She was a faithful friend and a kind and caring listener. Frances spirit was unique; she always had a smile even in her illness. Her courage gave us all inspiration. Frances gave her life to Christ and was a member of Payne Memorial A.M.E. Church. She derived strength and joy from the Word, listening to hymns and fellowship. Surviving her legacy of caring faith and light are her son Oneil Jr., daughters, Sheila Mary, Clarissa, and adopted son, Calvin; twelve grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, two sisters, one sister-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
