

Frances Archambault

December 18, 1933 - October 25, 2005

FRANCES ARCHAMBAULT, daughter of the late John Wesley Pyles and Luvalia Jessup, was born on December 18, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. She peacefully departed this life on October 25, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Douglass High School in Baltimore. Additionally, she received her post-secondary education and subsequent Associate of Arts Degree from the Baltimore City Community College. Upon completion of her education, Frances pursued a career in the criminal justice and corrections field. Frances was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses at an early age and attended the North Glen Burnie Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. Her faith, zeal and love for Jehovah were paramount in her life and enabled her to face and endure illness and adversity down to the very end of her life. She was an inspiration to all who knew her. Her greatest joy came from sharing the Bible's promise of paradise restored by God's Kingdom to everyone she met. She made numerous friends who will miss her dearly. But Eula Leggett, a friend who has known and loved Frances since childhood and is like a sister to her, will treasure her memory and miss her deeply. Frances leaves to mourn: her daughter, Anita L. Allen; four sons, Steven R. Allen, Reginald Allen, Mark Allen and Kelvin Wilson; two daughters-in-law, Zina Allen and Tracey Allen; two nieces, Patricia McDonald and Darlene Terry; a nephew, Curtis Willis; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 informs us that death is our enemy, that same verse lovingly tells us that death will be destroyed. What about our loved ones who have died? John 5:28,29 says- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you receive much comfort and strength from these promises in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Celebrate her life, not her passing; Remember the good times, the outstretched arm, the provocative pose, the diva; there will be periods of loneliness, but you are not alone, she will remain in your heart and memories. Should you need anything in the future or just want to talk, I'll be here for you. miguel###imported-begin###miguel dennis###imported-end##

“ Mommy, I miss you so much. It has been a year since you left and still not a day goes by without a thought or treasured memory of you. You are my beacon of light, my inspiration and my hero. Memories of your soft, warm and kind words or your smile, your laughter and the fun times we shared, always bring joy to my heart. I hope I made you proud of me. I carry you in my heart and in my prayers always. I love you and pray that I will be with you again someday. Many kisses and hugs. Your loving daughter,
Anita.##imported-begin##Anita L. Allen##imported-end##

“ Frances is my spiritual sister and being related by faith I know Frances strongly held hope for God's promised new world. So she is sleep temporarily but soon will be back among the living as Jesus will resurrect those who are sleep in the ground. That is all we can do is wait for that time which is in our near future. Jehovahs words will not return to Him without results. Is 55:11##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
