Remembering Her Life Legacy...

Frances L. Dade, affectionately known as “Dololly”, departed this life on Monday, February 22, 2021, at Sentara Hampton Careplex in Hampton, VA. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ida Jones and Charles Coleman Sr.; her two sisters, Florence Taylor and Lillian Williams; and her two daughters, Franchetta Lewis and Beverley Murray.

She grew up in Richmond, Virginia with her parents and siblings, and graduated from Armstrong High School in 1964. Years later she received a certification in the field of Nursing from the State of Virginia.

She was employed by Elizabeth Crump Manor Nursing Home as a CNA for many years before retiring in 1997. She loved her work, but most importantly, she loved taking care of her patients.

Faith was especially important to her, and even in her final moments, she continued to seek knowledge and grow in the Truth thanks to her amazing brothers and sisters at the Kingdom Hall in Newport News, VA.

She leaves to cherish her memories her two sisters, Nancy Ward and Harriette Hilliard (Thomas); one brother, Charles Coleman Jr. (Denise); four daughters, Pamela Ward, Cheryl Bynum, Tracy Lewis and LaFonia Thornton

(Lamont); fifteen grandchildren; twenty-six great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives; and two devoted friends, Florence Walker and Denise Augustus.

Frances had a heart of gold and would give you the shirt off her back. We will all miss her infectious smile, delicious food, unselfish generosity, and her Diva fashion sense.
