

Frances Ruth Davis

January 18, 1948 - August 30, 2020

On August 30, 2020, an angel of the Lord summoned Frances to her eternal home. She was welcomed by her parents; B and Ruth Smith, husband, George H. Davis, Sr, her son, David Davis, her brothers, James E. Smith, William A. Smith, Willie L. Smith, her sister, Rebecca L. Smith-Willis, and her sister in law, Annie Ruth Smith. Frances was born on January 18, 1948 in Abbeville, SC. Later in life, she moved to Richmond, VA and pursued a nursing career. After working in nursing for a long period of time, she retired from Beaufont Towers to take care of her children and grandchildren. Frances was known for devoting her time to help and provide for others. She was recognized by several charity organizations for her generous donations through out the years; i.e. the American Veterans Organization, Adopt a Child Overseas, and many more. She was the backbone of her family and has instilled a lot of her wisdom and knowledge to her loved ones and friends. It is with deep sadness that we share that our mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend, Frances Ruth Davis has passed away so unexpectedly. She has won so many battles possessing a strong desire to live through them all.
