

Frances Priscilla Devereaux

October 18, 1940 - December 24, 2015

Frances Priscilla Devereaux peacefully joined the angels of heaven and entered eternal rest on December 24, 2015 with her beloved daughter, Kathy by her side, followed by other loved ones. She was born October 18, 1940 to the late Joseph and Marie Sanders in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Frances received her formal education in the Philadelphia Public School System. She furthered her education and received her Practical Nurse License in 1975.

Frances was united in holy matrimony with Jewel Devereaux on April 8, 1983 in Philadelphia and from that union two children were born. She was affectionately known as “Faf”, “Mom” and “Strick” by her loving family.

She worked as a Licensed Practical Nurse in various nursing homes and as a private duty nurse. She enjoyed spending time with her children and family, especially cooking and taking cruises. She was a wonderful mother and a good provider that lived for her children. Frances was a hard worker, spoke her mind and believed in education for her children. She believed in her “higher power” and carried her spiritual walk in her own way.

She is preceded in death by her sister, Marion Brady, brother Franklin Sanders and nephew, Kevin Sanders. Frances leaves to cherish her memory three loving daughters, Kathy Gandy, Sandra Stephens (Gregory) and Kim Strickland; two caring sons, Wellington Devereaux and Julian Devereaux; three granddaughters, Corie Gandy, Diamond Devereaux and Jo'elle Evans; three grandsons, Eric Anderson (Elizabeth), Jarrett Hulum and Julian "JJ" Devereaux; one great-grandson, Crayton Anderson; two sisters, Rose Wallace and Joanne Sanders; two brothers, Joseph Sanders and Stanley Sanders, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
