

Frances M. Dorsey

January 17, 1926 - June 24, 2014

On Tuesday, June 24, 2014, God saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, so He gently touched her soul, quietly whispering “peace be thine.”

FRANCES MILDRED DORSEY (affectionately known as “Mom Mom” by family and friends) was born January 16, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Mable Holsey Weaver and Sherman Weaver.

Frances received her education in the Baltimore City Public School system. She worked at the University of Maryland at Baltimore for twenty years until she retired.

She was presented with an award of recognition shortly after her retirement. During these years she gave so much love and so much of herself to everyone she came in contact with. Even after retiring Frances continued to care for and serve her family.

Her life revolved around her children, and grandchildren were her world. On her 80th Birthday she was presented with the following plaque: “Mother, in honor of the difference that you made in our lives, this plaque represents the love, admiration and respect that we have for you. We take pride in saluting you on this very special day, your Eightieth Birthday. You are our life, you are our inspiration! Thank you for going above and beyond. We love you so very much. Bobby, Kent, Lynn and Betty.

Frances loved entertaining and spending time with her family and friends. She enjoyed helping and serving anyone in need. She loved her family and friends and made sure she spoke to them on a daily basis. Not only did she love everyone she came in contact with, but she was loved by everyone too! In 1973 she participated in the Miss Soul Popularity Contest and won because she just made that kind of impression! She loved to celebrate every holiday, even St. Patrick's Day, and her favorite holiday was Christmas!

Frances is survived by: two sons, Charles and Kent Dorsey; two daughters, Lynn Webster and Betty Brown; two sons-in-law, Kenny Brown and Steve Webster; two daughters-in-law, Barbara and Marie Dorsey; two sisters, Nancy Finch and Joyce Weaver; grandchildren, Joy, Charles, Harold, Kimberly, Marc, Mieka, Katina, Darren, Nettie, Tiffany, Krystal, and Eboni; sixteen great-grandchildren and a host of friends and other loved ones.

“ *I was 12 or 13 years old when I was pretty much adopted by this wonderful Lady and her entire family. Ms Frances was the only person that ever called me "Son"; to some that might seem like a small thing, but it meant so very much to me. This Lady will live forever in my heart. “ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
