November 19, 1925 - October 2, 2022

Legacy of Life

Frances Amanda Fitzgerald was born on November 19, 1925 to Melton and Amelia Reynolds in Alexandria, Virginia. Frances was preceded in death by her two sons Barry Fitzgerald and Kevin Fitzgerald; sister, Mary Greer “Sugar Pie” and her brother, Norman Reynolds.

She attended school in Alexandria, Virginia. She moved to Richmond in her early adulthood. She married and started her family which she had five children. She was a labor worker at Phillip Morris, where she retired.

Frances accepted the Lord Jesus Christ at an early age and continued to live for her Jesus Christ until her passing.

Frances will be remembered most for how she loved others. She welcomed anyone she encountered with open arms. She opened her door to everyone. She loved people, no matter what age she welcomed you. She loved to have guest at her home, and you would always be offered something to eat while you were there and a plate to take with you. Frances loved to cook. Cooking was one of her love languages and when she cooked all her meals were prepared with love. She would lend a helping hand to anyone in need. She loved to make other laugh and she was always prepared to tell a good story or a joke. For anyone that has had the opportunity to be a part of this loving and caring women, will never forget her. Her memory will live on forever.

Frances was peacefully gained her wings to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 2, 2022 surrounded by her loved ones. She will be missed by all that knew her and loved her.

Frances leaves to cherish her memory: children, Robert Fitzgerald, Dorothea Harris and Joannie-Williamson Aikens (Tyrone); seven grand-children, Barry Fitzgerald Sr., Felicia Morgan (Andre), Latisha Jones, Lamont Harris (Tamara), Shavon Wilson, Jamir Williamson and Danielle Brown; ten great grandchildren, Diondra Owens, Barry Fitzgerald Jr., Oneida Monique Simmons, JayVonte Taylor, Devin Morgan, Lataijha Taylor, Sean Morgan, Christian Morgan, Marcasia Frazier and Sebastian Harris; nine great great grandchildren; along with a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends; amongst them devoted Arnette Pleasants, Delores Thomas, Michael Jones, Douglas Snead, and Darlene Redd.

She is forever free from sickness and pain. She is now resting in the arms of her "Lord Jesus Christ in Heaven" as she would often say. Let us rejoice and be thankful of the time we shared with her and continue to celebrate her life and legacy.

“ To my cousins Robert, Joannie, Dorthea, Barry, Lamont, Jamir, Danielle, Shavon and the rest of the family my sincere and heartfelt condolences for our great loss of Aunt/cousin Frances. She will truly truly be missed. I will always cherish the wonderful times and special moments she shared with all of us along with the great lifetime legacy she blessed us with. She was beautiful inside and out always was helping others. Gonna really miss her cooking those delicious Sunday and holiday dinners. Continue to stay strong family during this difficult time. Rest in heavenly peace Aunt/cousin Frances.
