

Frances Green

August 28, 1942 - May 3, 2002

Frances S. Green daughter of Helen Bantam and the late Ennis Jones was born on August 28, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed suddenly on May 3, 2002. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. After graduating from high school, she attended Baltimore City Community College. Afterwards, she became a full time employer of the Department of Social Services for 30 years, where she planned to retire in three months. Frances married David Q. Green in 1961. Out of that union came three beautiful children, a baby girl, who spent only days in this life, and her two surviving children, David Green (Pepe) and Dawn Milton (Bunny). Frances was a generous, humorous and a very outgoing person who was cherished by everyone she Encountered. She was a diligent and precise worker who was known for her outspokenness and genuine personality. She loved music, favored movies, and adored socializing. She enjoyed traveling and spending time with her children and grandchildren. Frances will be greatly missed by her family and friends. We will always love her. She leaves to mourn: her husband, David Q. Green of Mt. Airy, North Carolina; her mother, Helen Bantam; one son, David A. Green; one daughter, Dawn L. Milton; one brother, Edgar Bantam; one granddaughter, Latanya Morrison, two grandsons, Aaron Trodgen and Justin Smith; one great granddaughter, Amani Larocque; one stepson, Chris Green; a son-in-law, Keith Milton; a mother-in-law, Eula Hines; a brother-in-law, John Green; two sisters-in-law, Jane Green and Brenda Green; a devoted friend, Charles Williams, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
