

Frances Ann Hayes

June 15, 1944 - February 16, 2024

Frances Ann Hayes was born June 15, 1944, in Cleveland North Carolina to the late Claude and Hylettia Werrell. God called her home February 16, 2024.

Frances attended Baltimore County Public schools and got her GED while working at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

It's Baltimore where she met and married Sammy Hayes. Out of their union two girls were born Valencia and Gwen.

Frances was employed at Johns Hopkins for thirty years. Frances enjoyed being around the people she considered special in her heart, going out to eat, reading the Bible, listening to gospel, and reminiscing.

Frances was known for her Sharp tongue and infectious laugh. She loved her family more than anything, especially her grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband Sammy Hayes and siblings Virginia Werrell, Rosa Werrell, Esther Werrell, Charlene Werrell, Bernadine Werrell, Reginald Werrell, Robert Werrell, Florence Werrell, and Lolita Werrell.

Frances leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters Valencia (Samuel) and Gwen (Cedric); three grandchildren Cedri Jr., Dymond and Stacey; two great-grandchildren; two brothers Claude L. Werrell and Charles Werrell; and a host of nieces and nephews.
