

Frances Louise James

June 25, 1946 - March 6, 2018

The Lord is my light and my salvation whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life of whom shall I be afraid: Psalm 27:1

Frances Louise James, 71, of Richmond (Fulton), took God's outstretched hand and walked through the pearly gates of heaven on Tuesday, March 6, 2018. She was born June 25, 1946 to the late Susie and Isaac Crew in Richmond, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her son, Cornelius James; sisters, Naomi Brown, Alice Jones, Clara Davis, Brenda Crew and brother, Michael Crew.

She was educated in the local public school system and graduated from Armstrong High School in 1965 in Richmond, Virginia. She made sure that she was heavily involved with the alumni association. Frances furthered her education at Smithdeal Massey Business College in Richmond and received her associate as she worked on her business degree.

Frances was formerly employed by Philip Morris USA as a maker operator relief for more than 30 years of dedicated service.

Frances was a wonderful mother, sister, auntie and friend; a loyal, faithful member until her health began failed. In her leisure, she enjoyed fashion, travel, gambling, partying, excursions, decorating, and designing. She was truly a social butterfly that loved helping people and giving of her time freely. She brought joy to everyone who graced her presence. She had a tremendously warm heart and to know her was truly to love her.

The gifts of love she left behind will always be treasured. She leaves to cherish her loving memory three brothers, Jimmie Brown, Franklin Brown (Cynthia) and Isaac Crew (Daisy); two devoted nieces, Suzanne Wallace (George) and Farrah Crew; a host of other relatives and caring friends.

"Beyond the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest.

And there is confidence in the thought, that a loving God knows best."
