“ *To the family of Frances Thomas Lewis:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My prayers and condolences are with the family of Ms. Frances Lewis. She was a kind person and would do anything for anyone without question. I truly enjoyed working with her at SSA and I know that she was a very conscientious worker and took great pride in making sure the job was done the right way. I loved how she interacted with everyone she came in contact with. I pray that her soul is resting peacefully with the Lord.

“ So sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is the last enemy to be wiped out. God hates death and promises to rid us of it once and for all. (1Corinthians 15:26) Mankind will live in peace, peppiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37:9-11; Revelations 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 28:5) May you draw much comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
