“ To those that knew my grandmother knows that she was a strong woman. No matter what her family always came first. I cherish the times that i spent with her from my birth to her death. she taught me a whole lot that i will never forget. She was more than a grandmother to me she was my mother as well. God doesn't make mistakes. Remember tomorrow is not promised. I love my grandmother with all my heart and she will be missed.##imported-begin##tanya##imported-end##

“ My prayer's go out to everyone of our family member and love ones effected from the lost of FRAN FRAN. You will be missed. On Sunday night before the funeral I had a dream that my Father(Robert Lee Spencer) came to my house and It was clear and real. I ran to the door and he was smiling telling me he would not miss the funeral no matter what. I never dream anymor so this was so weird for me. He ask me to show him how to use my iron so he could get his clothes ready for the funeral. We talked about life and he never seemed to be upset at all. He then explained to me too not worry that things would be ok . I then realized that he was getting someone he loved so much with him forever. To the entire family remember things will be ok. Love Farris (I think its time for all of us to realize how important family is. Life is too short.##imported-begin##Lafarris Lee Spencer##imported-end##

“ I extend my deep sympathy to the family of Frances. She lived a long life, but did you know that it is God's purpose for people to live forever? Jehovah says that a day to him is a thousand years because he lives forever; so to live 87 years is probably like a second to him. Psalm 90:4. Yet, being the loving God that he is, he wants to share the gift of everlasting life with us as well. That is why he sent us his beloved son, Christ Jesus, so that we could have life and have it in abundance. John 10:10. 1st Corinthinans 15:22 gives us this assurance of his love. It says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. May you be comforted by these wonderful future promises, and may your precious memories of Frances live on in your hearts forever. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address if you would like to know more concerning Jehovah's purpose for us. Have a nice day!###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
