

Frances M. Cox

November 29, 1927 - November 17, 2008

FRANCES M. COX, daughter of the late James and Edith Jones, was born November 29, 1927, in Lewisburg, West Virginia. Frances spent her childhood in Lewisburg, West Virginia and attended Bolling High School there before moving to New Haven, Connecticut to work. After several years, she returned home to Lewisburg to live and work. In the late 1950s, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where, in the early 1960s, she met Squire M. Cox, her devoted husband for more than 40 years. Frances was employed as a domestic worker, electronic parts assembler, and stock clerk before becoming a full time homemaker in order to care for her family and ill grandmother. As a young woman, Frances joined Mount Tabor Baptist Church in Lewisburg, West Virginia. After moving to Baltimore, she attended various churches in the area. Later, she and Squire attended and soon became members of New Metropolitan Baptist Church. Frances was a devoted wife, mother, family member and friend. She was an easy person to love. Her friends and family will greatly miss her unselfish and caring personality, but are comforted in knowing that she is in a better place. She departed this life on November 16, 2008, after a long illness. Her beloved Squire followed her to that better place on November 19, 2008. Thus; as they were constant companions in life, God saw fit for them to soon be reunited. She is survived by her son, Charles Edwards and his wife, Constance; stepsons, Bernard Cox (Bernard), Emanuel Cox and Adrian Cox (Teresa); brother, Carl Jones; a grandson; and numerous step-grandchildren, step-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins. other family members and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Frances M. Cox

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief; however, there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word, the Bible, as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Let me express my heartfelt sympathy to the family of Frances and of "Cox". My Grandmother and Gradfather gave so much love, to each other, to their children, to other family members, to their friends, and to this grandson. Grandma was so sweet and wonderful to me and with me, and that legacy continues on with me in how I try to treat people. It has been hurtful to see my grandmother suffer from her disease the last few years, and to see my grandfather faithfully by her side, but it gives me so much peace and comfort to know her spirt has been freed and both of their spirits are together again forever, as things should be. I wish I could be in Baltimore at this time to be with the rest of my family; alas we (myself as the family who as "adopted" me) down in Texas wish all the family and friends (which for them seems to include the entire world) love and peace to all of your hearts now and in the days to come. May God Bless and Comfort each and every one of you touched by these wonderful people.##imported-begin##Robert Edwards##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM