

Frances M. King

December 15, 1937 - December 10, 2002

Frances King, daughter of the late Lizzie and Earvin Williams, was born on December 15, 1937 in Madison, Georgia. She departed this life unexpectedly on December 10, 2002 from a lengthy illness. Frances attended Madison High School in Georgia. Frances married Ross King and as the years passed on she gave birth to seven children, Eileen, Ross, Roslyn, Rosemary, Rose, Theresa and Rodney. She loved each of them unconditionally. Frances was a very special, warm, loving, caring and considerate person. She made friends any and everywhere she went. She was always there for anyone who needed her. She was an inspiration to people whose lives she touched. God knows friends and family will truly and dearly miss her. She leaves to mourn: seven children, Eileen, Ross, Roslyn, Rosemary, Theresa and Rodney (daughter, Rose preceded her in death); sisters, Alberta Fitch, Marguerite Matthews and Louise Bush, (Grace Williams, Inell Inamm, Elizabeth Taylor, Ruby Booker and Ealise Massey all preceded her in death); a brother also preceded her in death, WB Williams; three sons-in-law, Barry, Darrell and Grant; grandchildren, Barry, Beronica, Durrell, Maurice and Scott (Lakisha and Barry preceded her in death); seven great-grandchildren, whom she loved dearly; three very special friends, Kelton Wheeler, Frank Hall and Yvonne Luckett; who will all miss her dearly.
